

The Emerging Leaders Fellowship

The yearlong Emerging Leaders Fellowship offers training, tools, and support for new faculty and those who are transitioning to leadership roles. Participation in all fellowship activities including in-person workshops is required for graduation. STFM's Emerging Leaders Fellowship provides essential leadership training to family medicine educators. You'll:

- Learn critical leadership skills.
- Take on a leadership role right from the beginning of the program.
- Lead a team in a project and present on your leadership experience
- Get connected to family medicine leaders who will share tips on motivating others and handling difficult people and situations.

Underrepresented in Medicine Scholarship: The STFM Foundation is offering scholarships to cover the fellowship registration fee for two underrepresented in medicine participants. See application form for details.

$3,130.00

Medical Student Educators Development Institute (MSEDI)

This 18-month fellowship offers training, tools, and support for faculty who educate medical students and is particularly suited to those who aspire to be clerkship directors or medical student education directors.

MSEDI will give you the skills needed to advance your career in medical student education. You will forge enduring relationships with other participants, as well as the Institute faculty, who will support and guide you throughout your professional career. You can expect to learn these skills and more:

- Developing curriculum
- Evaluating students
- Dealing with challenging learners
- Recruiting and maintaining preceptor networks
- Directing a course
- Providing career advice to students
- Submitting a scholarly project
- Maintaining work/life balance

$2,595.00

Behavioral Science/Family Systems Educator Fellowship

This competitive, yearlong fellowship is for family medicine faculty who have responsibility for coordinating or teaching the behavioral science/family systems curriculum. Preference is given to applicants with 1 to 5 years of experience as a faculty member.

The Behavioral Science/Family Systems Educator Fellowship uses a structured learning curriculum of core content and formalized mentoring. The fellowship will help you:

- Better understand the medical culture,
- Build a personalized professional development plan
- Integrate behavioral science and family systems core principles into the practice of family medicine
- Plan, create, and present a scholarly project at a national conference
- Grow professionally through strong mentoring relationships with seasoned behavioral science/family systems educators and physicians

$3,130.00

Medical Editing Fellowship

The STFM Medical Editing Fellowship provides one faculty member a yearlong experience with the editorial and publishing teams at Family Medicine. Through this part-time, virtual fellowship, early or mid-career faculty receive coaching and hands-on experience to improve their skills in writing, reviewing, and editing scientific papers.

The Fellowship provides new faculty with hands-on experience at the Family Medicine journal. You'll:

- Identify the characteristics and value of well-written research papers and narrative essays, and practice evaluating submissions.
- Experience the manuscript submission process and become expert in using the journal's editorial software system
- Act as an assistant editor by selecting peer reviewers, following-up reviews, and writing professional decision letters
- Go behind the scenes to understand what happens between acceptance and publication
- Gain an appreciation for the core ethical principles that guide the operation of scientific journals
- Improve medical writing skills

FREE

